Winter Chautauqua.

The Orleans Chautauqua association present the following program for the coming season:

Tuesday, Oct. 28, The American Concert Grand Quintette. This company is composed of a select soldiers' male quartet as a part of the Grand Concert Quintette. It is a rare combination of five big, rich, experienced voices.

Thursday, November 27, Crawford Adams and his company. This wizard of the violin bow always astonishes and charms his audiences. He still conducts his famous "requests." The other members of the company are Gladys Evelyn Gibbon, humorist, and Nan Synott, solo pianist and accompanist.

Monday, Dec. 8, The Venetian Musicians. This is a diversified company of solo artists upon the grand concert accordion, violin and piano; also vocal solos, readings and musical monologues.

Tuesday, December 16, Dr. Nathan Howard Gist, lecturer. Dr. Gist is a brilliant young westerner who is making for himself a great place upon the chautauqua platform.

Tuesday, February 3, Dr. H. W. Sears, humorist and lecturer. He is a happy combination of fun and philosophy, everywhere known as "Dad" Sears, the "Tuffyman."

The concert companies, which include Crawford Adams of last year's course, are exceptionally strong. The lecturers are of the highest class and the whole program will be above the standard of yesteryear courses given in this community.

Season tickets including war tax are $1.75, and a special student's ticket with war tax for $1.00. The drawing for season ticket seats will be held at the opera house Monday, Oct. 27, at 7.30 p.m.
